- g. is there any limitation on Soviet participation in the U. S. future's market;
- h. can the Soviets purchase in the future's market before the agreement is in effect and without their identity being made known to USDA; and
- i. what are the details on transportation and the terms thereof; and will they be U. S. carriers, foreign carriers, or mixed.

5. At the briefing, either Gilmore or Clark intend to raise questions re the recent newspaper articles by Dan Morgan and particularly why USDA was surprised that CIA gathers intelligence on the world grain market.

6. According to Gilmore, Senator Clark taught Soviet studies at the University of Iowa and should be fairly knowledgeable in general terms of the Soviet Union. Gilmore would also like to have a list of key individuals we feel Senator Clark and company should talk to on Soviet grain, both as to political--economic and commercial aspects.
